

Biography Poem

A Bio Poem is a fun 10-line poem usually written about oneself, or an important historical figure. They're easy (2 lines are used up with names) and fun. I like to write them about my favorite literary characters. See if you can figure out who my poem is about before the last line.

Flora Belle
Cynical, brave, big-hearted, and smart
Daughter of a romance writer and a sad, quiet man
Who loves the Amazing Incandesto, saying "Holy Bagumba!", and a squirrel named Ulysses
Who feels exhilarated by the fight against malfeasance
Who is scared her mother doesn't love her, and of losing her father
Who fought the powers of evil, and made a friend named William Spiver
Who hopes to fight injustice and save Ulysses
My favorite book of all time
Buckman

To write your own, just follow this pattern. Good luck, and have fun!
